Hostelling International

The Vicarious Traveler's series offers an opportunity to travel and learn about customs and cultures around the world. Though shared pictures, stories, music and discussions we can start to understand how interrelated we are and our role in this world we inhabit. This experience will hopefully make us all better stewards of our land and cultures.

Saturdays in February & March
3:30-5 pm
Richmond Main Library
101 East Franklin Street

Easter
Island
February 4

Kristin Smith, lifelong traveler, will talk about her trip to Easter Island and how to save money traveling abroad.

The series is part of Hostelling International's Opening Doors, Opening Minds initiative, which brings into sharp focus a vision that hostellers can become caring world citizens who are catalysts in creating a more peaceful world.

Programs will be followed by an optional tour of the future Richmond Hostel under development near the Main Library.

Jordan
February
25

Virginia Vasser will talk about her trip to Jordan and offer other insights into Muslim culture.
